FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Simcoe County Heritage Fair returns to Simcoe County Museum

Midhurst/April 17, 2026 – What happens when curiosity meets Canadian history? You get the Simcoe County Heritage Fair! Join us on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, between 12:00pm and 2:00pm, at the Simcoe County Museum where stories of Canada’s past will be shared by students from across Simcoe County.

From fascinating historical figures to unique cultural stories, these projects showcase months of creativity, research, and passion. The public is invited to wander through the projects and explore Canadian heritage through fresh eyes. With nearly 700 students participating at the school level last year, this regional fair truly represents the very best of the bunch!

Whether you’re a history buff, a proud family member, or just looking for a fun and educational afternoon, there’s something for everyone!
