5. Award Categories

Amanda Murray, Manager of Parks & Recreation, provided an update to the Committee on several recent changes to the Culture & Sports Hall of Fame program. The nomination criteria have been streamlined from nine pages to three pages and now include a Lifetime Contribution category. The updated criteria and category information are available on the Township website.

A new online nomination form launched on January 31, 2026. The form allows nominators to submit applications digitally, including uploading nomination letters and photos, replacing the previous paper-based process. This change is intended to make the nomination process more accessible and encourage increased participation.

The Committee will continue to review nominations and may also bring forward additional candidates for consideration. A photo gallery featuring the 2025 Hall of Fame recipients has also been added to the website.

6. Culture & Sports Hall of Fame Timelines

Amanda Murray, Manager of Parks & Recreation, discussed the timelines for the 2026 Culture & Sports Hall of Fame. Summer students will assist in June by gathering articles and information related to Hall of Fame inductees. The Culture & Sports Hall of Fame event is scheduled for Wednesday, June 10, 2026.
